

The MacMillan Center
ORDER CONFLICT VIOLENCE

The MacMillan Program on Order, Conflict, and Violence
Speaker Series, Spring Semester

Rosenkranz Hall, Room 05, Mondays, 11:45 am - 1:15 pm, unless otherwise noted.

- January 20 (Friday)    How Does International Intervention Work? Mechanisms for Securing Peace Settlements in Civil Conflicts
Aila Matanock, University of California, Berkeley
- January 23            Compelling Collaboration: Systems of Coercion and Non-Combatant Behavior – Evidence from the Palestinian Rebellion, 1937-1939
Josh Goodman, Yale University
- January 30            Civilian Noncooperation in Civil War
Juan Masullo, Yale University and European University Institute
- February 6            On Uncertainty: Fake News, Post-Truth, and the Problem of Judgment in Syria
Lisa Wedeen, University of Chicago
- February 13          Civic Education in Violent Elections: Evidence from Côte d'Ivoire's 2015 Election
Leonardo Arriola, University of California, Berkeley
- February 20          Laws in Conflict: Legacies of War and State-Building in Chechnya
Egor Lazarev, Yale University and Columbia University
- February 27          Gender and Civilian Agency in Communal War
Jana Krause, University of Amsterdam
- March 6                The Emergence and Consolidation of Opposition to Authoritarian Rule: The Case of Pinochet's Chile
Consuelo Amat, Yale University
- March 27              Between Accommodation and Collaboration: Soviet Views of Local Women's Actions During the German Occupation of Ukraine
Regina Kazyulina, Northeastern University
- April 3                 Filling the Blood Quota (or not): Violence and the Shining Path, Peru 1980-2000
Chuck Walker, University of California, Davis
- April 10                When the Rebels Win: Leadership, Preferences, and Statebuilding after Civil Wars
Kai Thaler, Harvard University
- April 17                The Development of Governance Within Syrian Refugee Communities
Daniel Masterson, Yale University
- April 24                Behavioral Variation at the Micro-Level of Participation in Genocide
Aliza Luft, UCLA
- May 1                  Political Order in the Aftermath of Civil War: Wartime Rule and Local Governance in Rural Colombia
Andrés Vargas, Yale University